Mr. Bell presented a resolution that the Committee on County Offices report to this Board the amount of salary due to R. Busteed for his services for 1858 as legal solvier to this Board. So referred.

Mr. Biller presented a resolution that the Committee on Printing, &c., inquire and report whether or not any action of this Board is necessary under the act of April 10, 1855, to authorize Boards of Supervisors to adopt seals, and to make certified copies of their rectrds and proceedings of evidence. Adopted.

A discussion arose on the justice of the county paying the expenses of the Sheriff, in fitting up his office. Mr. Biller opposed paying the bills for that purpose, as the Sheriff is office was a fee office. It was the first time the Sheriff should be allowed office-room in the City Hall. The Sheriff should pay his office reat and expenses. There were other offices and courts that required the rooms, and he hoped at least that the bills handed in for fixings for the Sheriff's jury room, &c., would not be allowed.

Mr. KENNEDT took the same ground. The Sheriffs had been in the habit of paying their own bills, at least for such extra and taking away the fixtures at

TEN GOVERNORS.

TEN GOVERNORS.

The Board of Governors held their regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon, at Bellevue Hespital; President Doono in the chair. The usual requisitions were read and approved.

A communication was received from Mr. John C. Green, transmitting a resolution passed by the Commissioners "for the removal of the Quarantine station," that the Board of Governors of the Alms-House be requested to receive and treat, at their Small Pox Hospital on Blackwell's Island, all patients sick with small pox at the Quarantine or Marine Hospital on Staten Island, or which may be subject hereafter to be sent there in pursuance of law—the expenses thereof to be paid by the Commissioners of Emigration. Referred to Committee on Island Hospital.

The Superintendent of the City Cemetery sent in a communication asking the Board to give him authority to purchase another house, for the purpose of expediting the removal of the dead bodies from old Potter's Field, Fiftieth street. Referred to Committee on City Cemetery.

Evarts, to whom were referred the matter as to the legality and propriety of paying Pudney & Russell, the assignees of Dr. Morton, the sum of $1,500 for the advantages the Governors have derived from the use of sulphuric ether in the Hospitals as an anaesthetic agent. Accompanying the opinions was a report from the Committee on Out-Door Poor, with a resolution recommending the payment of the sum of $1,500.

The subject was, on motion, laid over until the next meeting.

EXCISE COMMISSIONERS.

Messrs. Haskett and Holmes met yesterday aftermoon, when the former offered a resolution that the license fee for the present year be fixed at the lowest rate allowed by the statute, namely, $30, and that the jurats to the affidavits of the applicants be taken before a Commissioner of Deeds or a Notary Public. Adopted. Adjourned to Wednesday.

In regard to the expression made by Mr. Holmes on Monday, that the Board might as well apply to the Great Mogal on, a question of municipal action as to the District Attorney, it is due to state that he added, as his reason for saying so, that it would be out of the line of the professional and official duties of the learned District-Attorney to attend to such a request.

BLOOMINGDALE ORPHAN ASYLUM.

The Fifty-third Anniversary of the New-York Orphan Asylum was held at the Asylum in Blooming-lale yesterday. The spacious grounds and halls of the Asylum were thrown open to the public, and crowded by admiring throngs of ladies and children. The grounds are very beautiful; the grass and foliage, thick and heavy as in June, was a lasting delight to unaccustomed eyes. The happy appearance of the the parable of the talents, and all united in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Dr. LATHROF then read the Annual Report. It notices the death of Miss Mary Bleecker, who had been a faithful triend of the Asylum and a member of the Board of Trustees for more than 40 years. The death of one of the children, a little boy, is also noticed. When he entered the Asylum he was a poor, diseased, deformed infant, with no strength to withstand the destitution and misery of his orphaned condition. But here he was nursed and cherished, and his life was proposed for several years. The departure of one of bere he was nursed and cherished, and his life wa-prolonged for several years. The departure of one of the girls from the orphan household awakened much sympathy in the little community. She had no sconer learned to appreciate the blessings of her new home, than they were constrained to resign her to the guar-dianship of a near relative. Very reductant was she to leave her pleasant abode and her hitle companious; the native was most affecting; she even ansetrohe parting was most affecting: she even apostro-bized her comfortable bed, and said, as she gave it lingering, tearful look, "My dear little bed; how paized her comfortable bed, and said, as she gave it a lingering, tearful look, "My dear little bed; how shall I leave you? Shall I never he in you again? I have been so happy here! I fear I shall never be happy again!" Throughout the year the boys school has been under the charge of one of the boys, and the primary department has been for years under the charge of a lady who has never known any other home than the Asylum. During the year, $1,000 has been received from Miss Elizabeth Gelston, $500 from Miss Marlida Parsons, $1,000 from Mir. Peter G. Arealarius, and $500 from S. V. Sickles. The Report concludes by an expression of the urgent need of additional saberiptions; out of a revenue of nearly $18,000, but $1,000 is from subscriptions.

The Superintendent's Report shows that there are 101 boys and 63 girls at present in the institution.

The Treasurer's Report shows a revenue and expenditure of $18,521.

Various donations were also acknowledged, and Dr.

The Auniversary Hymn, by Miss Benecare, the Secretary, was sung by the children:

Sweet Spring has comes-the bads and flowers.
Are blushing goly everywhere:
The joyeus earth is speaking forth.
Her Maker's constant, wondrous care.
The sunshine and the dow, He sends.
On glossy leaf and tender spray.
That with sweet perfume they may broasine
His praise around, from day to day.

But, ah! we owe Him loader notes.

More fervent praise, than plant or fruit
Our priceless souls have been his care!

How sinful, then, should we be mate.

Our Father, God! The orphan's stay : Bend from thy lofty throne above.

And listen to our voices now,
As thus in childhood's feeble lays.
We, orphans, bless Thy holy name.
And offer Thee our heartfelt praise.
The remaining exercises consisted of dialogues, recitations and music by the children; and they were exceeding interesting to all who could crowd into the

COMMISSIONERS OF POLICE.

The Board of Commissioners of Police met yesterday afternoon at Headquarters in secret session, President STILLMAN in the chair. Ex-Judge Brene appeared before the Commissioners, and in a lengthy argument urged upon the Beard the necessity of taking inomediate action in the cases of the old Police force, in order that the City might be anved from further taxation. He appeared on behalf of 250 men, and he surgested that a Committee of three be appointed by the Board to examine into and classify the cases, and hear such evidence as might be adduced. The matter was referred to the Counsel of the Board, with instruction to render an opinion on Friday next as to the most speedy way of settling the cases. The Board adjourned until Friday.

THE NEW SCHOOL GENERAL ASSEMBLY. Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

WILMINGTON, Del. May 23, 1859. The pulpits of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches in this town were supplied yesterday by members of the Assembly. Many went on Saturday afternoon by steamboat to Philadelphia to spend the Sabbath. This morning's session has been occupied principally in hearing the reports of the delegates appointed by the last Assembly to other ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with this, and also in hearing the delegates from those bodies. Dr. Thurston of Maine was heard last week. One fact is very noticeable, that nearly all the reports and remarks recognize the existence of a disturbing element in those great charities in which the Congregationalists and Presbyterians have so long cooperated. This fact is viewed in widely different ways. The one class look toward separation in this respect as near a hand and not to be regretted. Another class admit it. A third class are not merely loth to admit the necessity, but they are resolutely resisting it. There can be no question that much uncomfortable fiction attends the operation of the present plan in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin and Nebraska, and when the truth is known, probably it will be seen that the blame is not all on one side.

It has been one pleasing fact in all the communications made to the Assembly this morning, that a cordial confidence has been expressed in the New-England Congregationalists. The most pleasing exercise was the address of the Rev. A. E. P. Perkins, the Delegate of the General Asseciation of Massachusetts, who, in a happy manner, expressed the salutations of the Congregationalists of Massachusetts to the General Assembly and the churches under their care. He states the results of the great revival in their church, angmenting their aggregate number over seven thousand, sembly and the churches under their care. He states the results of the great revival in their church, augmenting their aggregate number over seven thousand, and in many other respects adding to their efficiency. As to temperance, he said they in Massachusetts had not lost their interest, but were looking earnestly to learn what was to be done and how to do it. As to Shavery, they congratulated the Assembly on their present noble position and their past record on that subject. As to the Home Missionary difficulties, in very select and careful terms, he showed that his brethren in Massachusetts still held to the cooperation in that noble work; that many times their Congregational brethren in the West complained of unfair dealing from the Presbyterians, and of want of sympathy for them on the part of those at home, and in fact, that some had thought that New-England had contributed the larger share to the funds of the A. H. M. Society, but got the smaller share of the benefits, but upon the whole, it was the general determination of Massachusetts Christians to be thankful that through this instrumentality many seemed walking toward heaven, caring but little about the question of their Church preferences. Mr. Perkins further said that there were many cases in Massachusetts in which they helped their feeble churches without regard to the Home Missionary Society, and that he could not blame, nay, he must approve, the General Assembly in a similar course toward its feeble churches which are not included in the role of the Home Missionary Society, and that the could not blame, nay, he must approve, the General Assembly in a similar course toward its feeble churches which are not included in the role of the Home Missionary Society, and that the could not blame, nay, he must approve, the General Assembly in a similar course toward is feeble churches which are not included in the role of the Home Missionary Society. Notwith-standing such cases, Mr. Perkins was sure his brethren at home would cooperate with them in Home Mi stand side by side with their Presbyterian orethren in the conflict with their common fees.

One thing in Mr. Perkins's address deserves a special notice, viz; that in a very quiet way he passed a fine encomium on the Andover Theological Professors, as accepting in their obligation of office the "Shorter Catechism," and as certainly not varying from it more widely than perhaps some in the Presbyterian Church.

from it more widely than perhaps some in the Presbyterian Church.

This address was complimented with applause, a fact quite unusual in the sessions of this grave body. This fact shows how warm and extensive is the attachment here felt for the good men of New-Engkand, and what pain must attend any separation from them.

The Rev. Berd. J. Wallace read the report of the Church Extension Committee, which shows that about $10,000 have been disbursed the last year in meeting those exceptional cases which the Home Missionary Society refuses to touch. The same gentleman read the report of the Trastees of the Presbyterian House, which shows that institution to be in a sound condition, and that it is realizing the expectations of its friends in all respects.

In speaking of the reports this morning, I ought to mention that the Rev. Roment Booth of Stamford made a report as a delegate to the General Association of Connectient, which was very interesting, and represented well one class of people in the Assembly and Church. He told the Association that many in this church do not approve the course of such Presbyteries as the Alton, and that many with him have resolved to cling to the Heane Missionary Society to the last. He behaves in "the logic of events," and admits the tendencies of things, but at the same time will do pothing to hasten a consummation which he dreads, inst. He beneves in "the logic of events, and admits the tendencies of things, but at the same time will do nothing to hasten a consummation which he dreads, and would defeat if he could. In this, Mr. Booth is not alone in the Assembly, or the churches they represent. A warm discussion of the whole matter is close at hand,

Duffield on the Tune Bock was read and referred to the Committee of Publication.

A motion was made to appoint the first Monday of the next year as a day of fasting and prayer for the conversion of the world. This motion drew out the usual discussion on the propriety or impropriety of putting this off to the second Menday of the year. Mr. Tayton of Cleveland suggested that so far from changing this time-honored day that the whole first week in the year be devoted to prayer for that cause. The first Monday was selected.

The fourth Thursday in February was also set apart as a day of prayer for colleges.

The first Menday was selected.

The fourth Thursday in February was also set apart as a day of prayer for colleges.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported an overture from the Presbytery of Dakotah recommending that it be referred to the Committee on Cherch Extension.

The same Committee reported an overture from the Fourth Presbytery of Panladelphia asking whether some feasible mode of employing lay preachers may not be devised. The answer of the Committee admits the importance of the agency, but advises that the matter be referred to the Presbyteries for their action in any particular cases that may arise. Further, that our layman be admonished of their responsibility in all ways to advance the cause of Christ. It also suggested that the matter be specially attended to in the Assembly's narrative.

The Assembly listened to some interesting statements from the Rev. Dr. Perkles of Oroomiah.

The Assembly appointed the Rev. Dr. Stearns, of Newark, Principal, and the Rev. Prof. Heary Smith, of Cincinnati, Preacher on Hone Missions next year.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning.

TRUST TRIP OF THE STEAMSRIP GUATENALA. This vessel, intended for the coast trade between Parama and the ports along the coast of Central America, sailed on her trial trip yesterday morning. She is commanded by Capt. M. Dow. There were about 75 invited guests aboard, and on leaving the dock and passing the vessels in the harbor she was saluted. The American flag was flying at the fore, and the Costa Rican dag was at the peak.

NAVAL The work at all the Navy Yards is exceedingly brisk at present, in consequence of the unusually large number of vessels fitting out for sea. The steam-frigate San Jeinto had steam applied to her engines yesterday to try the respective merits of the two new boilers lately put on board. The result which is considered of great importance, cannot be definitely ascertained until longer trials are made. Yesterday the Martins boiler got up steam 40 minutes quicker than the horizontal one. All hands have been put to work on the frigate Sabine, now in the dry dock. The steam-sloop Hartford, at Boston, hashad her engines working almost continuously for weeks past, so that if there be anything wrong with them it may be discovered at once, and before she

THE HILLSBURGH LIBEL CASE.

The examination in the case of Chas. Hillsburgh against Capt. John L. Chauncey, U. S. N., on a charge of libel, committed by writing a slanderous letter, was resumed yesterday afternoon, before Justice Welsh.

In the re-direct examination of Mr. Hillsburgh counsel for the complainant asked who was referred to by the name "Mary M.," in one of the letters of Capt. Channey. This was objected to, and the ob-jection was sustained. Mr. Hillsburgh, in answer to a question, then said that he never rode out with Mrs. Chauncey on a pleasure drive. He had ridden with her in public vehicles on different occasions. Coursel for the defendant took up the re-cross examination, and asked Mr. Hillsburgh for a description of the location of the premises occupied by himself and Mrs. Chauncey in the cottage at Rockaway. Objected to by counse! for the complainant.

Counsel for the defendant thought the specific location of the rooms at Reckaway should be known, location of the rooms at Rockaway should be known, as well as at the previous hotels. He stated that their rooms at all the different places had been contiguous. The objection was overruled.

Witness—Mrs. Channecy had rooms on the right-hand side of the cottage as you enter by the doer; I had a room in the left-hand cener, my door being eight feet from Mrs. Channecy s; Capt. Channecy and her little girl roomed together; I did not state that Mrs. Channecy, after her return from Sharen, occupied rooms immediately above me at the Clinton-place Hotel; do not recollect the number of our rooms at the time referred to; they were exactly opposite, on the hall; three of Capt. Channecy's children were left in my charge—Kate, Fanny and Buddy, and also Mrs. Channecy—at Sharen Springs, on the Captain's leaving; soon after this Kate, the eldest, was sent for, and went away to New-York to school; Fanny went to school also, leaving only Buddy at home.

Counsel for defendant asked the question whether the Rev. Peter S. Channecy, brother of the defendant, did not remeasured at the expenditure incorred by the counsel for defendant asked the question whether the Rev. Peter S. Chauncey, brother of the defendant, did not remonstrate at the expenditure incorred by the complainant. Mr. Clinton objected, and stated, by authority, he said, that this course of inquiry into another branch of the Chauncey family was against the interests of the defense, and was not desired by the gentleman named. Judge Beach thought these remarks were extremely offensive, and asked that counsel for the complainant should control only his own side. The objection was sustained by the Court.

Witness—The letter from Capt. Chauncey at Washington, dated Nov. 28, and containing strictures upon Mary's conduct, was not based, in its tenor, upon statements made by me, by my correspondence; the pistol and inkstand scene occurred before Capt. Chauncey went to Washington, I think: do not know whether the pistol was loaded; the time in the morning when the Captain asked me to purchase a pair of boots for one of the children was between 9 and 10 o'clock; the purpose for which I used to call every morning at the door of Mrs. Chauncey was to see whether she was ready for breakfast; sometimes, on these occasions, I went into the room, cannot tell what proportion of the time this might have been; when she said "Come in," I went in; it might have been half or three-fourths of the time.

Counsel for the complainant objected, and said be weatered to coeffine the matter to rules of evidence.

Counsel for the complainant objected, and said be wanted to confine the matter to rules of evidence.

This ground, he said, had all been gone over already.

Counsel for the defendant said he wanted to show that the two rooms were connected by a door, at the Union Place Hotel. Counsel talked too much. Objection Place Hotel. Coursel takes to overruled.

Witness—There were two doors communicating between my rooms and those of Mrs. Channey. They opened into her parior.

Direct examination resumed.—Capt. Channey was perfectly well aware of this fact, because we walked through them frequently; he knew it the very day he arrived in New-York on his return from Africa; he also have the fact opening in these rooms; I presume arrived in New-York on his return from Africa; he also thanked me for continuing in these rooms; I presume Capi, Channeev knew of my calling every morning to accompany Mrs. Channeev to breakfast; I have never heard anything to the contrary; sometimes the little boy and sometimes the little girl was in the room when I called; sometimes the little boy would come to my room and tell me that his mother was ready, when we would all go down together, except the little girl, who usually had gone to school; the breakfast hour was about 9 o'clock. about 9 o'clock.

to Mrs. Channeey, what makes you presume so? A. Because he asked me about it.

Q. Have you ever seen Capt. Channeey in bed in Mrs. C.'s room? A. I have not; I never looked in.
Counsel for the complaint objected, on the ground that the opposing counsel had no business to ask whether the Captain slept with his wife.

The examination of Mr. Hillsburgh was then announced as brought to a close for both parties. Some discussion took place as to the income and resources of Capt. Channeey, the counsel for the complainant alleging that the former was at the rate of $2.500 a year while off duty and $3,500 while on service, but that he had $20,000 besides, and did not pretend to rely upon his pay for support. The counsel for the defendant wanted to have the amount of the pay testified to and entered, but the matter was ruled out by the Court as irrelevant.

The counsel for the defendant then gave notice that he would move for a dismissal of the complaint, as neither party had any further witnesses to offer. The summing up of the counsel was set down for Wednes-day, the list of June, at 3 o'clock.

NAVIGATION ON A LARGE SCALE.-This is the agof progress, and we are glad the old Dutch and the new Yankee inhabitants of Westchester County have finally waked up and commenced to "navigate" the Harlem River. The advertisement in another column will show that a small steamer has been started to run under High Bridge, and give the New-Yorkers an oppertunity of viewing Fordham Hights, celebrated for mail eysters and large cattle. The trip to Morris's Dock will well repay the outlay of eight cents.

IMPORTANT DECISION-DEFEAT OF THE PARESON-TRIUMPH OF THE LANDHOLDERS.—Judge Gould has just made one of the most important as well as popular decisions ever delivered in this Judicial District. just made one of the most important as wen as popular decisions ever delivered in this Judicial District. In a case tried on Tuesday in Schoharie County, he ruled that, the Court of Appeals having just decided that "the condition of landlord and tenant" does not subsist between our patroons on one side and the tenants on the other, therefore the former cannot sue the latter for any rent, in any shape. In consequence of this decision, Judge Gould ruled that the patroons could not maintain suits against the landholders. The suit was accordingly "struck from the calendar." We get this from a person who heard the decision. If he has not misunderstood Judge Gould, we have reached a point in the Anti-Rent troubles which will soon quiet that excitement which has existed in the manor towns for the past twenty-five years, and which must exist so long as it is claimed that "involuntary servitude" or feudal tenures exist in this State. We congratulate the landholders on their first great victory. The decision of Judge Gould should lead to a general illumination at the Helderburgh. We imagine it will. [Albusy Sanjard.

CITY ITEMS.

BULL's HEAD.-The number of beef cattle in market this week, so far as we could estimate on testing the right of the State to make the lesse in Tuesday, will be over a thousand head less than were in the city last week. The number yarded at Fortyfourth street was only 2,300, with not over 100 more expected-say 2,400 against 3,200 last week. The consequence was, that the price advanced full half a cent a pound better than it was quoted in our last report, and the cattle-brokers hold their stock very stiff, feeling well assured that all the cattle not sold at their prices the first day would surely sell the second. We think that full half the stock this week sold the first day, and we should say that more than half of it sold at prices equivalent to 12 cents a pound for the meat. As to quality, we must say that we have never seen a better average in market. Some of the droves are really remarkable, and we expect to be able to record sales in our report of the market to-morrow of whole droves at about $120 a head, averaging 171c. a pound. There is scarcely anything in market that will sell at less than 11 cents net a pound. It is expected that the advance of freights will stop the influx of poor stock from the West.

THE MOTHER TONGUE. - The Rev. Mr. Oggell is to preach this evening, in the Dutch language, in the lecture-room of the Reformed Dutch Church, at the corner of Amos and Bleecker streets.

THE ORGANIC TRAITS AND RANK OF WOMAN .-Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Eliza W. Farnbam, the well-known lecturer and author, beld the first of a series of conversations with an intelligent assemblage of ladies, in the Cooper Institute. Her remarks referred to woman and her organic traits and destiny, and were intended to arouse the sex to a proper appreciation of their own dignity of character, that woman's influence might be more felt in shaping the institutions of society. The discourse was highly entertaining and instructive, and was listened to with marked attention. The second of the series on the uses of food and their relation to human development, will be given at the same place on Thursday, at 3

Success of a New-York Favorite.-Mr. Joseph Jefferson, the original "Asa Trenchard," Our American Cousin, not content with his success in the goodly city of Gotham, has extended the area of Cousindom, until now several cities that have heretofore been in a state of lamentable ignorance with respect to the characteristics of that eccentrically generous Yankee, are intimately acquainted with the said. Even into the Queen's dominions has he made his triumphant way. Last week he was at Halifax, where he was aided and abelted in his perionation by Mr. Sothern, the unvariable of "Lord Dundreary." How the Hali-gonians liked the style of lord enacted by Mr. Sothern, or the peculiaristics of the cute "Asa," the newspapers do not inform us, but any one who hasn't sense enough to "enjoy the loke." must be, to use the language of Dundreary the ineffable, "quacked, evidently quacked." Mr. Jefferson is this week in Pertland, Maine, where he is making a sensation. As might be supposed, offers of lucrative engagements for the coming season are literally showered upon this popular comedian, but his services have been secured by one of our own managers, and he will positively act in New-York next season.

SMITH O'BRIES AT THE PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. William Smith O'Brien, Thomas Francis Meagher, and a small number of their personal friends, made a visit to the public institutions yesterday, by invitation of the Board of Ten Governors. The party consisted of some 25 gentlemen, beside those named and embraced, Judge O'Conner, ex-Senator McMurray, Gev. Maloney, ex-Gov. Henry, Capt. McQuiggan o the steamer Vigo, Lieut. Surrey, U. S. A., John Brougham, Walcot, with others.

The party reached Randall's Island about III o'clock, and were received by the little army of boys upon the island, drawn up in true military array. A tour of inspection was then made of the various de partments upon the island, the party visiting the Lunatic Asylum, Workhouse, Hospitals and Penitentiary. The order, cleanliness and perfect system exhibited in the several institutions called forth the highest commendations from each of the visitants.

The round of Blackwell's Island having been made the party sat down to an elegant and substantial repast provided in the Governor's house. At the close of the dinner, speeches were made by Mr. O Brien, Judge O'Connor, John Brougham, Walcot, Gov. Maloney and ex-Senator McMurray. All were pertinent to the occasion, and were entirely free from spread-eagleism," a fact worthy of record. At 7 o'clock the party were landed in the city.

THE FRIENDS .- The annual meeting of the Hicksite branch of the Society of Friends has been in progress since Monday last, at their meeting-house in Twentyseventh-street, and will probably continue through the week. The Orthodex branch commence to-day at the Orchard-street meeting-house.

Pure Moneys.-The grand testimonial to Mr. Morphy is to be formally presented this evening, at the University Hall. St. Patrick's Cathedral Sunday Schools will hold the usual annual exhibition, on Thursday evening, at tae Apollo Rooms. THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY .- The British vessels in out were gayly decorated yesterday in honor of the ortieth anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria. The Persia, Karnak and other steamers fired salutes, as did the yacht St. Ursula. The United States cutter Washington joined in the salute.

THE WEST WASHINGTON MARKET TROUBLES.-The occupants of West Washington Market were thrown into a fever yesterday in consequence of the counsel of Taylor & Co., State leasees, waiting upon them to year. The occupants, relying on the protection of the City authorities, refused, and were threatened with summary ejectment. This threat, however, was not Thursday, Jone 15 and 16.

ALLEGED SWINDLING AT THE TOMBS,-Win, M. Hearne, who has practiced as a lawyer around the Tombs for some years, was arrested yesterday for swindling, on the complaint of Margaret Burke of No. 491 Broome street. It seems that some months ago the complainant confided her illegitimate child to a friend named Mary Ann Smith, residing in the same house with her, but subsequently wished to regain possession of it. Her friend, however, would not give it up, and she came to the Tombs Court for the purpose of lodging a complaint against the woman, when she was met by Hearne, who for $3 promised to get her child. She handed him her purse containing $9, from which she subsequently ascertained that he had taken $7. As he had done but little or nothing since in her behalf, she had him arrested for swindling, alleging that he was a tailor, and not entitled to practice in the Courts. The charge is still under examination. If the magistrates of the Tombs Court only exercised the authority vested in them, the harples who live by swindling such poor creatures as Mrs. Burke would soon be banished from the precircle of the Court.

BURGLARIES.-The stores, Nos. 2331, 235 and 239 Water street, were all entered between Saturday night and Monday morning. Desks were broken open, and many things scattered around, but, so far as can be ascertained, nothing was stolen. The strangest part is, that although one of the desks broken open contained about $? in change, yet none of it was taken.

HARDEN, THE WIFE POISONER.-The trial of Har-HARDEN, THE WIFE POISONER.—The trial of Harden for murder, in Warren County, will not take place till September, the Board of Freebolders having refused to order a special term in July. Great efforts we are informed, are being made to create a feeling in favor of Harden, and there are many who really betteve him innecess of the crime with which he is clarged. He has preached two or three Sabbaths in the jail where he is confined, and large numbers of ladies have flocked to hear him. Harden says himself that he is entirely innocent, and pretends to be carnedly engaged in study, designing, when liberated, to prosecute his ministerial work.

coverment in the manufacture, and that he knew mething of the fact, nor did be pay for a greater number of yards that scaled in the invoice.

This meeting the Jury brought in a scaled verdict for the claimant.

The United States agt. Two Cases marked R. J. B.

This still was brought to forfeit a quantity of goods imported in 1837, on the ground that they were of an obsected character. The claimants desired my knowledge of the character of the goods. The Judge charged the Jury that the extent was preemptory, in terms devicting that all such goods must be forietted, notwithwatering the respectability or character of the importer. Verdict for the United States, condemning the goods.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS COURT—MAY 24.—Betore Charles W. Newton, Commissioner.
Swuggding Case.
Charles Worms and John Reigner, two Germans.

Charles Worms and John Reigner, two Germans, were examined on a charge of smuggling jewelry, &c. On the 2d of March last, Officer Kellium of the Fourth Frechet, while on his beat, heard the cry of "Stop thief!" On going to the house where the robbers was said to have been committed, the officer found a quantity of jewelry, &c., scattered about the room, said to being to the two headers. The property was taken to the Station-House, and subsequently one of the alleged owners was found in this city. On questioning him, it was found that the parties had arrived from Brazil, with the jewelry in their possession, on the 20th of January last, in the bark Manderson. Subsequent impulsies at the Custom-House revealed the fact that the golds had been smuggled into this port, and the parties were hearing the evidence, held the defendants to await the action of the Grand Juty. James k. Dwight, esq., for the prosecution, Mr. Jemas B. Phillips for defendants.

THE SEGRO MINSTELL CASE.
Henry Wood agt. George N. Harrington.

Mr. Banks moved for an attachment against the deschant for contempt, for disobeying the injunction issued in this auti.

The Juste said he would give him an order to show cause why an attachment assould not issue, but he cold notrestrain the decirculant from playing until the hearing of the case, as there might be some technicality in the agreement between Wood & Christy, which might be the principal point in the case. It did not seem probable to the Jodge that the defendant would so upenly violate the coder of the Coort, unless he was acting under the advice of counsel in regard to the agreement between bland Wood.

Mr. Banks then took an order to show

SCPERIOR COURT-PART L .- Nos. 584, 611, 285, 617.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.-About 12 o'clock on Monlay night, just after the steamboat Commonwealth left New-London, two of the deck hands named Dennis Hanley and Patrick Radigan, had a persons collision, during which Radigan drew a large pocket-knife, with which he stabbed his antagonist in the neck, breast, and sides, inflicting wounds which will no doubt prove mortal. The wound in the neck is three inches deep, the weapon grazing the jugular vein-that in the breast penetrated the lungs, and the cuts in the side extend half around the man's body. Hanley is now in the Hospital, at the point of death, and his autagonist in the Tombs to answer for his
